So much to do, so much to see, so much to eat! That's what we will all think after we visit Over the Rhine and the Findlay Market in Cincinnati, Ohio on Saturday, July 13, at 10:00AM.

Findlay Market is Ohio's oldest continually operating public market, located just blocks from the historic downtown neighborhood of Over the Rhine. There are 50 merchants selling fresh produce, meat, fish, flowers, cheeses, and bakery items, plus an additional Farmers Market on Saturdays. Open from 10:00AM to 4:00PM, there is so much to see and buy - be sure to wear your walking shoes and bring your shopping totes!

Lunch is offered throughout the Market, but, we have open seating for 12:30PM in the Queen City Radio Bar for a rest between shopping. Lunch will be at the Lubecker, a food truck inside of the Queen City Radio Bar offering a variety of mouthwatering German dishes.

So, be sure to RSVP here <https://forms.gle/vTViJoWVh6VSQCpk9> and plan to join the Bluegrass Stars and the Queen City Stars Chapters for a little slice of Germany.
